Wont Rush Tariff and Currency Bills.

Although President Wilson has let it be known that he expects Congress to put on more steam and rush both the Turiff and Currency Bills, there are signs that the democratic members of the House Banking and Currency Committee will not be hurried. Another week of conferences these committee men have not yet agreed on a single section of the 40-page Glass-Owen Currency Bill. They have merely had "test" votes on several comparatively unimportant provisions.

A situation has developed in the committee which is of particular interest to agricultural States like Kentucky.

Representative Willard Ragsdale, of South Carolina, one of the democratic members, announced positively that the bill would not be ready for presentation to the democratic caucus for at least two weeks, and perhaps for a much longer time. This was in the face of the hope expressed by Chairman Glass, of Virginia, that the bill would be completed by the committee by the end of the week. Mr. Ragsdale has many pet ideas of his own which he is going to make a hard fight to have included in the bill. Chief among these is a plan the bill. Chief among these is a plan to have cotton, tobacco and other agricultural products considered as ample accurity for the issuing of the propos-

The Summer Resort.

I'm going to spend the summer

Right where I did last year,

The place lacked no convenience,

Conducive to good cheer.

And everything was good

The beds were soft and downy.

Like mother used to make.

I had there every comfort

I did not lack for food. The cooking was a marve

I did not lie awake.

The coffee was delicious,

Nobody tried to sting me

On prices for my board;

Mosquitoes didn't bite me,

I motored out quite often

At very slight expense,

And golfing was immense.

Yes, I'll spend the summer,

With no desire to roam,

I'm going to stay at home!
